LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Another Speech from Mr. Coddington.

Mr. Coddington writes to a friend in this city that he will be here next week Wednesday, and address the people on political topics. The arrangements for his speaking will be announced hereafter.

PERSONAL.—"Daniel," the "financial man" of the Janessville Gazette, alias Mr. Daniel Wilcox, poked his good natured piz into our office on Friday last. We were glad to see him, and hope he will call again. Albany Times.

"Daniel" is around making calls upon his and our friends generally. We request all to use him well, feed him plentifully, pay him promptly what he asks, and return him to his family as speedily as possible. He is an unsophisticated youth, and might be led astray by the designing, or cheated by the evil-disposed. He is not "in condition," either, to make political speeches, and we shall expect that our friends will not "betray" him into one.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Early this morning, while making up a freight train for Milwaukee, Mr. Charles Robinson, a young man aged 22 or 23 years, whose parents reside in Stoughton, was so badly injured as to cause his death soon after. He was signaling the engineer, and fell from a car; five or six cars passed over him, frightfully crushing and mangle both legs, the injuries on one extending into the abdomen. His wounds were dressed by Dr. Treat, and he was immediately started for the house of his parents, but before reaching Edgerton he died.

A CHALLENGE TO ROCK COUNTY.—Winnebago county, Ill., proposes to give Lincoln and Hamilton 3,500 majority, and stumps any county to beat it.

What say the republicans of Rock county to this challenge? The figures named, 3,500, are pretty tall, but Rock county can reach them, if every republican in the county does his duty.

The friends and customers of H. W. Ashcraft will find him in his new place of business ready to attend to their wants as promptly as ever or more so. Strangers also will be satisfied after giving him a call. See his advertisement in another column.

Our city fathers might invest a dollar very satisfactorily to our citizens by employing a man to drive down the protruding nail heads upon the walks on Milwaukee street bridge.

A JANEVILLE PARTY AT ALBANY.—Last Saturday morning in a company of 16 at the breakfast table at the hotel in the village of Albany, Green county, 15 were present or late citizens of Janesville. Both of the flouring mills there are run by Janesville millers, Messrs. Heller & Hanchett and Wood & Russell. Business generally is prosperous in the village, and the citizens there concluded that if a Janesville man wanted to change his residence he exhibited good taste in selecting Albany.

Thomas Reynolds has been nominated for the assembly in the 5th district in Dane county. Thomas has a hard district to run in, but if any republican can carry it he can. If Tom is elected, we want a chance at the celebration supper.

As "fades a summer cloud away," so has faded the "corn exchange" from the spot so long commemorated to its use.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—The Albany Times says:—Last Monday evening, as Mr. Jas. Campbell was crossing the bridge in this village, with a two horse team and a load of wheat, himself on the top, his wagon was run into by another, and himself, wagon and horses were precipitated over the bridge, where it is sixteen feet to the water. Mr. C. must have fallen about twenty-four feet, and yet, for a wonder, he escaped with only a few bruises. The horses also were uninjured, though the wagon was stove up, and the wheat soaked and scattered. The escape was truly wonderful.

DIPHTHERIA.—Dr. N. S. Davis, in a letter to the Chicago Times and Herald, denies that the disease at present prevailing in many portions of Illinois, and known as diphtheria, is either new or necessarily fatal.

RESULT OF GOOD CROPS.—We noticed yesterday, at the office of Wm. W. Boyington, esq., architect, designs for seven first class stores, four stories high, for Messrs. Jackman & Smith, Janesville, Wisconsin. —Chicago Journal.

The Atlantic for November at Newell's.

MEETING AT MONTICELLO.—The republicans of Green county had a large meeting at Monticello last Saturday. The Wide Awakes from Monroe, Juda, Clarno and Albany attended, and in the evening made a fine display. Fifty of this effective department of the republican organization turned out from Albany.

E. D. Holton, Mr. Baker, editor of the Albany Times, Mr. Flood of Exeter and Mr. Bintliff, one of the editors of the Monroe Sentinel, addressed the meeting. The Monticello brass band, together with martial music from Juda and Albany, were present, and enlivened the proceedings.

"Little Green" is fully aroused; her republicans are active and confident, and will do their share in the work which will give Wisconsin to Lincoln with a regular astounding.

PREPARING FOR A CONTINGENCY.—A correspondent of the Charleston Mercury suggests to its readers, that if no dissolution of the Union should take place upon the election of Lincoln, the legislature of South Carolina is to elect a U. S. Senator, and names Gov. William H. Gest as a suitable candidate.

CORWIN IN CHICAGO.—Thomas Corwin is announced to speak in Chicago at the wigwam to-night.

A certain divine gave out a psalm to his chorists, who attempted to set it to a new tune; but having made a blunder, the clergyman, when he came to that part of the psalm, "Lord, have mercy on us miserable sinners," in his turn made another blunder, and read it as follows: "Lord, have mercy on our miserable sinners."

Candidate for the Assembly.

We find in the Anbura Daily Union the following notice of the republican nominee for the assembly in this city. As the testimony of an old acquaintance, who has known Mr. Graham for many years, it commends itself to those who have known him less intimately. Mr. Graham brings with him a good name from his old home, and no one can doubt that he will serve the people among whom he has now cast his lot with the same fidelity and zeal which has heretofore characterized him in all his public duties.

We learn from our Wisconsin exchanges that the Hon. Alexander Graham, formerly of Schuyler county, New York, but now of the city of Janesville, Wisconsin, is in nomination by the republicans for member of assembly. We take the liberty of saying to our western friends that they have made a capital nomination. Mr. Graham belongs to the class of men who are constitutional rights. For twenty years, or more, we have known his sympathies, sentiments and opinions upon public questions to be in consonance with the humanizing spirit of the age. He was proverbially faithful as a whig, and cannot well fail to be so as a republican in his western home. And his sterling, incorruptible integrity attracts to him hosts of friends wherever he may be.

Among the working, effective and influential members of the New York legislature of which he was a member two or three years, Mr. Graham had no superior. It was said of him that he never could be brought into the support of a foolish measure, and could never be induced to oppose a wise one. And he was an able and effective advocate of all the measures he espoused. He will carry with him into the legislature of Wisconsin, with the kind wishes of his former constituents, that practical good sense and familiarity with legislation which will secure for him the favor of, and a distinguished position in that body.

We love to listen to the soft breathings of the flute, the Æolian melodies of the harp, and the bewitching tones of the violin; but the kettle-drum—ah! there's the rub-ah-dub.

A lady being asked the place of her nativity, replied: "I am so unfortunate as to have no native place; I am the daughter of a Methodist clergyman."

"Do you keep matches?" asked a vag of retailer. "Oh yes, all kinds," was the reply. "Well, I'll take a trotting match." The retailer immediately handed him a box of Bradstreet's pills.

The man that left the "state of want," and went to Pike's Peak, has come back after his wife and fifteen children.

TAXES.

The undersigned gives notice to all those who have not paid their city tax, that unless paid forthwith he will proceed to collect the same according to law.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, OCTOBER 24, 1860.

The wheat market opened this morning rather quiet at yesterday's closing figures, a few hundred bushels changed hands at 76¢ for fair to choice dry spring, but about 11 o'clock, on receipt of steamer's news quoting foreign markets dull and lower, buyers lowered their views fully a cent per bushel, selling the balance of the day at 76¢ for milling lots, and 76¢ for dry shipping, and 55¢ for damp—closing with fair 5000 bushels. Receipts during the day were 5000 bushels. Receipts on coarse grains fair and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 80¢; good to choice milling spring 76¢; fair to good dry shipping 76¢; damp and grown winter 55¢.

Phoenix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phoenix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparalleled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assets now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay its dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phoenix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's. Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will be at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying
